

The Empathy of an Outsider – A Symposium on the Photography of Chim (David Seymour)

A symposium to celebrate the opening of the exhibition “Capturing History: The Photography of Chim” at Beit Hatfutsot – The Museum of the Jewish People

Tuesday, November 21, 2017, at Bnai Zion Auditorium, Beit Hatfutsot

- 13:00 Guided Tour of the exhibition “Capturing History: The Photography of Chim (David Seymour)” with Asaf Galay, exhibition curator
- 14:00 Welcome and Opening Remarks
Dr. Orit Shaham-Gover, Chief Curator of Beit Hatfutsot
Prof. Milette Shamir, Vice Dean of the Humanities for Academic Affairs, Tel Aviv University
- 14:30-16:00 Session One: Photographing the Children of World War II
Chair: Prof. Yael Darr, Children and Youth Culture Studies, Tel Aviv University
Carole Naggar, Author and Photography Researcher - Chim’s Photographs of the Children of Europe after World War II
Prof. Bettina Kümmerling-Meibauer, University of Tübingen: The Idea of a Better World – Photographs of Children by Chim (David Seymour), Anna Riwkin-Brick and Tim Gidal
- 16:00-16:30 Break and Refreshments
- 16:30-18:15 Session Two: The Spanish Civil War through the Eyes of Documentary Photographers
Prof. Raanan Rein, Vice President of Tel Aviv University - The Ghosts of the Spanish Civil War: Beyond the Negatives
- 18:30-19:30 Screening of the documentary film The Mexican Suitcase (2011), director Trisha Ziff, on the discovery of Spanish Civil War negatives taken by Chim, Gerda Taro and Robert Capa

The symposium will be in English and Hebrew with simultaneous translation
The public is invited

Information and Registration: 03-7457880 | tal@bh.org.il

BEIT HATFUTSOT
THE MUSEUM OF THE JEWISH PEOPLE

Beit Hatfustot, Tel Aviv University campus
Gate 2, Klausner Street, Ramat Aviv

www.bh.org.il

TEL AVIV UNIVERSITY
Pursuing the Unknown
The Lester and Sally Entin
Faculty of Humanities